How to: Add two-factor authentication to an eRaider-authenticated website that you manage

Details

If a website administrator wishes to add two-factor authentication (2FA) to their website, they should submit a network project request to Telecommunications. Telecommunications will contact the customer to understand their security concerns and needs.

OUTCOME

If the request is approved, Telecommunications will implement the changes for the application.

Solution Properties

Solution ID
170517133201520

Last Modified Date
01/17/2020 09:19:02 AM

Author
raking